C.P.R. Contribution To Prosperity About $508,000 Each Day

President E. W. Beatty Makes Public Amazing Figures on What Railway Is Doing for Upbuilding of Dominion—Tax Bill Nearly $21,000 Daily—2,500 Miles of New Road

Ten-Year Expenditure Was $386,000,000

HAMILTON, Nov. 21.—"The Canadian Pacific is not in politics, and, if I am any judge, has little, if any, political influence," stated E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, at a banquet held in his honor here this evening by the Canadian Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Beatty pointed out that if the progress of the Canadian Pacific had been in a measure due to the opportunity given to it for financial expansion free from political restrictions, it was in itself as free as possible from any political complexion.

"Every citizen of this country, and the company can claim to be a fairly sizeable one," continued Mr. Beatty, "is naturally concerned with national policies, whether they emanate from one particular party or another, and the Canadian Pacific, because of its tremendous stake in the country and the fact that it is a trustee of hundreds of millions of British, Canadian and American capital, jealously guards those interests against unfairness, or the adoption of any policies calculated to destroy the integrity of those investments. When I say that, however, I have said it all."

ON FAIR BASIS
At this stage Mr. Beatty stressed the point that the Canadian Pacific had a theory as to its relations with governments which it endeavored to carry out both literally and in accordance with the spirit of it, and that theory was that the company should conduct its business with the Government of this country and the Governments of the provinces, no matter what their political complexion might be, on a fair business basis free from political intrigue or machinations.

"In the past," said Mr. Beatty, "railway officials discussing transportation subjects were able to assert that the improved conditions in Canada in agriculture and in industry were reflected in railway results, and therefore that Canadian prosperity had been seriously decreased by conditions which were not only unusual but unique.

"There are those who believe in cycles, those students of history who refer to the lean years and the full years as being almost inevitable. There are some who today prophesy for this country not an arrested development but slower and less spectacular progression during the next few years."

ADVANCEMENT SURE
"Even if these men are right, these are not circumstances which need discourage us. It is most likely, however, that the inherent strength of this country will enable it to outstep in subsequent years to such an extent that our progression, whether it be a little slower or as rapid as that of former years, will be none the less certain.

"I have the pleasure of speaking periodically to our officers, and, less

B.C. Man Wins Championship On Field Peas

First prize at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, for the exhibition of white field peas has been captured by W. O. Gibson, of Ladner, world's champion in the same class at the Chicago exposition last year, with seed originated and developed in Saskatchewan by C. W. Sterling, the Department of Agriculture in addition. Field peas of extra large size and superior quality were developed by Mr. Sterling five years ago. The stock was made available for more general use in British Columbia through the interest of J. S. H. Matson, who multiplied the seed to commercial quantities, and aided in its distribution. Mr. Gibson was one of those quick to seize on the utility of the new variety, and has been a consistent winner of leading exhibition honors.

Mr. Gibson also took third prize at the Toronto show this year for his field beans. Heavy competition was entered in both classes.

INDIA SEES NEW HOPE IN CONFERENCE

Premier MacDonald Makes Important Statement in Speech to Princes

DELEGATES FEEL MORE CONFIDENT

Aga Khan Pleads for Self-Government and Promises Protection

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The prospects of the round table conference succeeding are brighter today than at any time since it was initiated as a result of a speech by Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, concluding the plenary session. The Prime Minister talked in generalities rather than offered specific pledges on the part of the Government, but the tone of his address disclosed recognition of India's aspirations and the inevitability of Great Britain's bowing to the demand for freedom, which has heartened the Indian delegates.

Mr. MacDonald responded in a generous spirit to the passionate cries for home rule, voiced by all classes of Indian society during the last five days, which dispelled much of the hard feeling and disappointment generated by the demand for freedom, which has heartened the Indian delegates.

TWO REQUIREMENTS
"Your committees have the best will of the British Parliament as well as the Cabinet for success," said Mr. MacDonald. "We hope that at our final meetings we will be able to register agreement upon your recommendations which will send you back to India happy and powerful men and which will permit us to do likewise here. Above all we hope that it will strengthen the friendship which unites us and amplify enormously the desire to co-operate with one another."

Mr. MacDonald said that the new constitution which would be the result of the conference would be a sacred inheritance, he said, "Indian opinion and Indian experience must be more important than the initiating power in its evolution."

"You are not in a position here to produce a static constitution that your grandsons will worship as a sacred inheritance," he said, "Indian opinion and Indian experience must be more important than the initiating power in its evolution."

"Behold the history of our evolving Dominions and note that they had ardent men in their days of evolution—men who, going to prison, boasting that they had been imprisoned. These are the inevitable processes of life and the ways whereby changes are effected."

Business Depression Is Overemphasized Bond Dealers Told

Record Canadian Bond Sales of $650,000,000—Mining Dividends of $14,000,000, and Other Factors Are Undervalued, Says Finance Minister FUNDAMENTAL soundness of Canadian business and firm confidence for the future of this province was expressed by Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, in a striking address before the British Columbia Bond Dealers' Association. Mr. Jones traced Canada's record of bond sales from a total of $82,000,000 in 1907, in their rapid rise to $400,000,000 in 1929, and the respectable total of $650,000,000 in ten months of this year.

Mining dividends, which had played their part in the upbuilding of this province, had grown from $3,000,000 to $14,000,000 between 1923 and 1929, continued Mr. Jones, who commented that tendencies to over-optimism depression had been more marked than justified.

"It is time to play some other tune than the blues," the minister continued. "Too much has been said about depression. Tell a man he is sick, and he will at once begin to feel poorly. Tell him he looks well, and he will hold up his head, and feel better for that encouragement."

DOUBTS IF GOVT CAN STABILIZE WHEAT PRICES

Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of Interior, Visited at Vancouver

SAYS EAST NOW SEEKS NEW NATIONAL PARKS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—"In view of the world situation—so many factors entirely out of our control—it is hard for me to see just how the Dominion Government could stabilize the price of wheat," Hon. Thomas G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior, said in an interview here today, following his arrival in Vancouver.

"Premiers of the three provinces conferred with the Dominion Government in August of this year, and I don't believe the Dominion Government will recede from the position taken at that time," Mr. Murphy added. He would not indicate what the answer had been.

EAST IS JEALOUS

Regarding Canadian national parks, which come under Mr. Murphy's jurisdiction, he said he had noticed in the Eastern provinces, particularly in Ontario, that there was a strong desire to create national parks. "They are beginning to feel jealous of the Western provinces with their big national park areas."

"My own province, Manitoba," he said, "will come into line next Summer when we open the Riding Mountain National Park, an event which promises to stir international interest in the Maritimes. We have been suggested for Federal park reservations. We are doing all the Winter work possible in our parks in order to meet unemployment."

REPORT NOT COMPLETED

"Negotiations now under way between the Dominion and British Columbia Government are expected to lead to the establishment of two new Federal parks, one on the Lower Mainland and one on Vancouver Island," Mr. Murphy said.

"Mr. James Wardie, our engineer, has just finished a survey of suggested areas out here, but he has not completed his report," said Mr. Murphy. "Until I see that report, I do not care to express an opinion as to the number or location of parks which we might undertake to develop."

Asked about the Kitchikan Indian Reserve, with its administrative triangle involving Federal, Provincial and Vancouver Municipal Governments, Mr. Murphy smiled.

EXPECTS DISCUSSION

"Yes," he admitted, "although new in office I have heard of Kitchikan Reserve. I have no doubt that it will be discussed during my visit here."

Dr. Duncan C. Scott, deputy superintendent-general of Indian Affairs, is in Vancouver, and also W. E. Ditchburn, Indian Commissioner at Victoria, and they will confer with the Minister in Vancouver and Victoria. The Minister is accompanied by George F. Buckard, secretary.

One of the first visitors to greet the Minister in Vancouver was Hon. N. S. Loughheed, Provincial Minister of Lands. Mr. Loughheed welcomed him to British Columbia, but did not take up any matter of business. Mr. Murphy indicated that he would take up affairs of mutual interest with the Provincial Ministers before he returns to the East.

CONSERVATION OF GAME FISH IS REQUESTED

DEPLETION FEARED

Under existing control, it was shown, Federal officers were from the nature of things bound to give chief consideration to commercial operations, and no machinery existed for the consideration of game fishing as a separate part of the issue. Despite every willingness and attention shown by Federal officers in game fish matters, conservation of sporting varieties remained in nebulous form; while increased accessibility of fishing areas and improved methods of fishing were likely to result in the depletion of fish in British Columbia waters, it was shown.

The delegation, presenting a written brief on the subject, asked revision of the Fisheries Act to set up a separate administration for game fish, under a supervisor, warden and necessary staff, consideration of the institution of a system of licence fees for resident and nonresident anglers, where the fees would be expressly earmarked to cover a part of the cost of the added service; segregation of game fishing waters to provide adequate opportunity for both fly and bait fishermen; revision of catch limits on early spring grilse in inland waters; and renewed efforts to replenish game fish stocks.

Alternatively the delegation asked that the department institute an investigation at first hand into the questions for itself, and act along whatever course seemed advisable after such an inquiry.

CONSIDERATION PROMISED

In reply, Mr. Rhodes said his department had to hold the balance fairly between commercial and sporting requirements in the fisheries of a country which depended to a material extent on its commercial fisheries. At the same time, he said, game fish were a magnificent asset, and a never-failing attraction to visitors from other countries.

The delegation, Mr. Rhodes concluded, might rest assured that his representations would receive the earnest consideration of his department, and at the earliest possible opportunity, fishing, Mr. Rhodes said whimsically, was his own particular hobby, though, since he had been Minister of Fisheries, he had had little time to indulge in it. Thanked for its concise statement of the case, the delegation withdrew after a courteous hearing.

KING OF SPAIN TAKES BOLD ACTION TO HALT REPORTS OF REVOLT

MADRID, Nov. 21.—King Alfonso boldly called for a showdown today in the face of persistent reports that his powerful elite corps of artillery were about to revolt, and made a personal inspection of the artillery barracks.

He looked over the equipment, chatted with officers and men, and broadly responded to well-coming cheers. The city commented with admiration tonight, for while this was officially a routine inspection, it was interpreted as another example of the king's flair for cool, dramatic directness in confronting emergencies.

COLLEGE ENTERTAINS AT BIG RECEPTION

Annual Gathering for Parents Held by Faculty and Students Last Night

Victoria College was thronged with visitors last evening on the occasion of the annual reception by the faculty and students to the parents and friends. Fully four hundred people attended and enjoyed the delightful informal programme which had been arranged, parents remaining until about eleven, and the students and their young friends continuing to dance until about 1 o'clock.

The chief stiffness of the classroom was banished for the evening, banks of ivy and giant gold and white chrysanthemums filling fireplace and hall, and the college colors being prominent in the numerous blue and gold candles and tawny-colored flowers which decorated the main assembly hall, where the faculty and students were seated in the front of the hall, the tables being decorated with pink chilies picked in the college grounds yesterday, the fact being much commented on as a tribute to the city's equable climate in late November.

In the receiving line were Principal P. H. Elliott, Prof. E. S. Parr, Miss J. A. Cann, Miss R. H. Humphrey, Professors G. P. Black, W. Gage and E. Savanah, and J. Cunningham, head of the college faculty; R. V. Maclean, president of the students' council, and the following other members of the same: W. S. McKinnon, Young, Miss P. Brown, and Messrs. P. Sprinkling, A. Ploes, H. Manson and A. Merling. Students who assisted during the evening in the entertainment were: outstaying the Misses M. Ewart, V. Anderson, H. Harris and P. May, and Messrs. K. Graham, R. Horsey and M. Christopher.

Among those who attended were: Dr. S. J. Willis, superintendent of education, and Mrs. Willis; the Hon. P. P. Burden and Mrs. Burden; the Hon. W. A. Macdonald and Mrs. Macdonald; Mr. George Jay, chairman of the school board, and Mrs. Jay; His Honor Judge P. S. Lampman and Mrs. Lampman; Dr. and Mrs. W. S. McKinnon; Dr. and Mrs. P. Barr; Ira Dilworth, principal of Victoria High School; J. W. Gibson, supervisor of normal schools, and Mrs. Gibson; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McKinnon; Mr. and Mrs. R. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Sourrah, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, and other representatives of service organizations who have present scholarships.

Miss Humphrey had charge of the decorations, Miss Cann conducted the singing, and Mrs. Macdonald and Miss Velma Anderson were responsible for the very attractive miscellaneous music provided during the early part of the evening.

ARREST MADE IN TREMBLEUR LAKE MURDERS

formation wired by Inspector Spiller.

OUT OF BREAD LINES

It was on June 4 last that Fred Smith, a storekeeper at Port St. James, sold a large quantity of provisions to three Germans, Peters, Westphal and Fredericks, did the talking. He said that they were going into the Trembleur Lake country to keep out of the bread lines in summer. The party had a boat well stocked with provisions, and had secured the services of an Indian guide, who returned after the night of the Tachet River part of the route.

On or about June 10 a man believed to have been Carl Fredericks came out of the Trembleur Lake area with the guests and their provisions, rifles and other equipment, saying he was not feeling well and intended to go into hospital at Prince George. His companion, said, had gone on to Takla Landing.

Nothing in these facts aroused suspicion, and it was not until the continued disappearance of Peters and Westphal a month later that inquiry was aroused into the incident. It was then found that Fredericks had taken passage on the Canadian National Railway to Edmonton, and that Peters and Westphal were definitely missing. Search was instituted by the provincial police as soon as they were informed of the facts, and Indian guides and trappers put on the case by Inspector Spiller at Vanderhoof.

BODIES DISCOVERED

The search, after months of careful work, led to a shallow grave on the eastern end of Trembleur Lake, where the remains of two men were found on November 11. The bodies were taken to Vanderhoof, where their identity was established beyond question. Simultaneously the detection of Fredericks was ordered. Definite charge of murder was laid after due investigation, and the preliminary hearing will open at Vanderhoof on the return of Inspector Spiller with his prisoner.

The Society for Psychic Research will meet in St. David's Hall, 1414 Douglas Street, on Sunday, at 3 o'clock for open discussion, and at 7:30 Thomas Audley, of Vancouver, will conduct the service. He will lecture on "Seek Ye First the Power Within," with messages from written questions at the close. He will also conduct a message circle on Monday at 8 o'clock.

ME AN' BERT (In Danger!)

Now, Me an' Bert wuz stranded, in a frowsy little Town, Finanahly embarrassed, an' paradis' up an' down A sniffin' at the Restaurants, at odds wot extols The elevatin' succulence of Beer an' Sausage Rolls.

An' Me an' Bert wuz bitter, an' our guilts sort of gripe, An' our stumicks' o'lers 'erry for a plate of steamin' tripe, An' just as we'd a notion as we'd let St. Peter slam The Gates on us for ever, an' abduct a little Ham, We notices a Buildin', at the bottom of the street, All cluttered up wot posters, 'Are ye ready, now, to meet The Fads?' an' 'Men and Women' 'Prepare yourselves to die! Absolve yourselves from wickedness! Millennium is nigh!'

But wot seemed entertainin' to us wot'd nearly swerved From Righteousness, wuz, 'Welcome!' an' 'Refreshments will be served!'

"Come on!" I nudges Bertram, an' I saunters in a room Wot's full of frowsy benches an' the smell of buns an' Doom, An' bickers wot flabby faces an' 'women, up an' sharp Wot looks at us, suspicious, 'til we wishes we'd a harp Or anything pertinant, unto that wot most becomes The changin' into Bishops, of a pair of lousy bums.

An' soon we sees a cove in black, wot opens up an' groans "Oh Brothers, ye are wicked!" an' ev'body moans, An' mutters Halleyluehs, while he tells 'em, any minute The Berth wot's up in cracks, an' they wot tumble in it, With Fire an' Brimstone waitin', for the likes of me an' Bert, An' he points us out as sinners, an' he lades on the dirt, I'd better whispers, "Blimey! But m'e stumicks on the bum! I ain't the 'eart to stuff it, on it's way to Kingdom Come."

An' just as I've agreed, as I don't care a damn For Holy Rallyes wot's sanges or Resurrection Ham, I sees that bloke a-bendin' an' a-bobbin' up an' down, A-rantin' of Germoret an' another country-town Where apparently, the People wot's quite as del-cate As them wot plays the Organ, or is handin' 'round the Plate— An' as 'e wavin', frontin' an' I thinks 'e's gone to fly Some papers, from his pocket, flutters close to me an' I— The which I starts collectin'—Then I gets a sunnin' blow, An' figures out, dejected, that the World is mighty low— Among them Holy papers of that mystery an' gay Whose 'erry occupation wuz to tell the World to die, Wuz a Life Insurance Policy, wot Bertie quite agreed, Wuz a little bit conflictin', to a 'Die Termerter' Creed!!!

So me an' Bertram chuckles, an' when the pratin' stops, Amalgamates, right 'erry, in the stuffin' down of chops An' the lappin' up of coffee, an' we snottily ignores As 'ow the Earth might open up—an' us fall in the ports!!!

Golden Twilight Highway Proposal Attracts Great Attention at Convention

Vast Possibilities of B. C.'s Northern Inland Empire Are Detailed

WENATCHEE, Nov. 21.—Factors entering into the British Columbia-Yukon-Alaska highway proposal, the opening of the highway by tying in Good Roads Convention here tonight by P. Philip, deputy minister of public works for British Columbia, in an instructive address that was highly appreciated.

Philip, who spoke at the invitation of the convention, gave an interesting account of the great resources of the territory that would be tapped by the construction of such a system.

Confining himself to facts, as apart from policy, Mr. Philip showed the nature of the country through which the proposed highway would pass, and the benefits that would accrue from the provision of a motor road through British Columbia to the Yukon and Alaska, by the opening of the vast northern area with its unlimited resources.

A line traced from the Pacific Ocean at Prince Rupert eastward along the Skeena River and the line of the Canadian National Railway to the Alberta boundary divided British Columbia into two nearly equal portions, he stated. The southern portion represented the more settled parts of the province, and the northern half, with the exception of the Peace River district, largely "terra incognita."

Richly endowed areas The northern half of the province, continued Mr. Philip, was known to contain vast resources, as yet hardly touched, in minerals, water powers, fur and game. The climate was moderate and suited to agriculture.

From the imaginary line across the province northward lay 52 per cent of the total area of British Columbia, continued the speaker, 40 per cent of its timber, 17 per cent of its commercial timber, 36 per cent of the potential agricultural land, 18 per cent of the value of mineral output, and 2 per cent of the present population.

Large commercial bodies of ore had been located near the Taku River, he continued, with high values in gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc. These were at present in the prospecting and development stage. Placer mining at Atlin Lake, lead mining at Tagish Lake, and a high-grade mineral area at the head of the Skeena River, also lay in the territory such a road would serve, as did Dease Lake, Skeena River, and the rich drainage basin of the Upper Skeena, all important mineral areas.

IMMENSE TERRITORY The Yukon and Alaska, to the north and west, were growing in importance. The Yukon was equal to nearly 60 per cent of the area of the province, and had a large yearly output of minerals, huge coal reserves, and abundant water power. Alaska, pointed out the speaker, was 1.7 times the area of British Columbia, had 1,500 miles of roads, and annually exported $60,000,000 in minerals and other products.

Transportation, said Mr. Philip, was the first need of any country, leading rapid development in its own development. The British Columbia would remain closed to the majority of people until transportation could be provided. Some northern areas, including Stewart, had drawn attention to this fact with emphasis recently, pointing to the lack of a Canadian means of ingress and egress to a richly-endowed portion of the province, awaiting development.

LUKE TO MOTORISTS Tourists, continued Mr. Philip, had become important to British Columbia. Washington, Oregon and California motorists were seeking new routes to travel, new places to explore. The Golden Twilight Highway, when it could be constructed, would lure travel northward, with Alaska as the goal, but with a wonderful out of scenic attraction in between.

Influx of motorists, for longer periods of time in the province, he believed, would carry the tide of prosperity in British Columbia northward along two main highways, ending in the highway from Hazelton to Alaska, as the backbone of the system.

Land connection through British Columbia to Alaska, with Southern British Columbia as the gateway could not help but benefit all territories served by such a route, continued the speaker. Feeder systems and air travel would increase the utility of the highway by tying in districts not actually traversed by the road.

Already, he said, the air route from New York to London via Alaska and the Bering Sea was being discussed. Only fifty-six miles of water separate the two continents between Siberia and Alaska.

HOTEL HEATING PLANT CAN BE USED FOR COAL

System So Arranged That It Can Be Changed Over

REPORTED PULVERIZED COAL NOT SUCCESSFUL

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—The heating plant of the new Canadian National hotel here will be so constructed that it can be changed over from oil to pulverized coal on short notice, Col. T. A. Ham, resident assistant to the president of the Canadian National Railways, said today.

Colonel Ham's statement followed criticism yesterday by J. D. Galway, provincial mineralogist, who, in addressing the British Columbia Division, Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, said "it was almost a disgrace" that the new hotel should use oil instead of coal, in view of the unemployment in provincial coal fields.

Colonel Ham said oil was selected for perfectly good reasons, the chief of which was that the company was not satisfied the pulverized coal system had been perfected sufficiently to warrant its installation in the new structure. Experts had been sent to United States cities, he said, to investigate the use of pulverized coal in hotel heating plants. Our switch engines, freight engines all use British Columbia coal, adding:

"It would be more satisfactory if the facts were presented a little more fairly regarding the use of coal in engines on this division. We use coal in all our engines on the main line between here and Kamloops, except for passenger locomotives. Our switch engines, freight engines all use British Columbia coal."

IRISH FREE STATE PLACES HEAVY DUTY ON BUTTER IMPORTS

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Nov. 21.—While only one dissenting vote the Dail Eireann passed a Government motion imposing a duty of five pounds per hundredweight (about twenty-five cents a pound) on all butter imported into the Free State beginning November 22.

The Government's action was considered a surprise, as the ministry recently had declared against tariffs on foodstuffs.

Eamon de Valera, opposition leader, welcomed the proposal, saying it meant that $500,000 sent abroad annually would now remain in Ireland.

NANAIMO MAN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

NANAIMO, Nov. 21.—Plunging into a stream after leaving the Millstream Bridge, near the Quatnaht, last evening at 11:45, a coupe, driven by Christopher Mills, of the Columbia Hotel, was badly wrecked. A passenger in the car, Gus Cormack, of 113 Dixon Street, received head injuries which necessitated his removal to the local hospital. After having his wounds dressed, he was able to proceed home.

It seems that the occupants were coming from Northfield, and, failing to negotiate the slight turn at the bridge, the car toppled over into the water and was badly damaged. Police state that had the car proceeded a few feet farther before turning over it is likely a drowning fatality would have resulted.

Palpitation Of The Heart Nerves Were All Gone

Miss Rose Griffin, Ashern, Man., writes: "About five years ago I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, caused by a shock, and my nerves were all gone, and I could not sleep. I read about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and decided to try them. After I had taken three boxes I was feeling fine again. I think they are a wonderful remedy, and wish all others who suffered as I did would give them a trial."

Never before in all the world's history has there been such a tremendous strain on the nervous system. This is the real reason why so many business and professional men are dropping suddenly by the way.

Whether the immediate trouble may be described as weakness of the heart, the stomach or other vital organs, the foundation cause in most cases is lack of nervous energy—the vital force of the human body.

INTERNATIONAL BROKER HOUSE OPENING HERE

Logan & Bryan, Important Financial Firm, Adds to Its Branches

RESIDENT PARTNER IS VERY OPTIMISTIC

At 6 o'clock sharp on Monday morning, Logan & Bryan, the well-known transcontinental brokerage house, with headquarters in New York, will open a branch office in Victoria at the corner of Government and Bastion Streets, in premises formerly occupied by Miller, Court & Company, and later on by the B.C. Bond Corporation, Limited. Workmen are busy as bees in the offices preparing them for the requirements of the new occupants, and J. Forbes McBurney, resident partner of the firm in charge of the district, with headquarters in Seattle, who arrived in the city yesterday, is busier still.

"We are," said Mr. McBurney, "going to maintain a full-fledged broker's office in Victoria and give what we call 'bang-up service' in all markets of Canada and the United States. We have private wires in connection with all the markets. The business conducted will be that of a strictly broker's office and we are going to transact that business at the Pacific Coast rates of commission and interest."

REPRESENTED HERE 20 YEARS

The firm of Logan & Bryan has Canadian branches in Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, the latter having been opened in October, 1927, and the opening on Monday of the Victoria branch will bring the number in Canada up to half-a-dozen. In the United States the firm has, besides its headquarters in New York, offices at Seattle and in more than thirty other cities.

For more than twenty years Logan & Bryan has been represented in Victoria, its latest correspondents having been Branson, Brown & Co., Ltd., who, pending the opening of the new offices of Logan & Bryan on Monday, will continue the telegraphic service, with quotations available to the public in their boardroom.

When Logan & Bryan's new office in Government Street is opened it will be in charge of F. J. Pullen, who has been transferred from the Vancouver branch, and H. A. Humber, formerly manager of the stock department of Branson, Brown & Co., this city.

BOTTOM HAS BEEN REACHED

Questioned as to his views on the stock market financial situation, Mr. McBurney was extremely confident and optimistic.

"My personal opinion," he said, "as far as the stock markets are concerned, is that the turn has come. In other words, that the bottom has been reached. How rapid the recovery will be nobody, of course, knows; but I feel very strongly that there will be a quicker recovery than many financial leaders believe."

FORM BODY TO LIMIT ORIENTAL EMPLOYEES

Local Branch of Maple Leaf Association Hopes for Ten Thousand Members

An informal meeting for the purpose of organizing a local district branch of the Maple Leaf Association, was held on Wednesday evening.

The aims and objects of the organization were fully endorsed by those present, and a provisional executive was formed for the purpose of calling a public meeting, at which the permanent officers of the organization will be appointed.

200 HAVE SIGNED

The organizers of the association were present, and reported to the meeting the results of a canvass of the district. More than 200 persons have already signed up, and it is expected that the island membership will be not less than 10,000.

W. D. Todd acted as chairman of the meeting, and J. B. Acland, as secretary. Those attending the meeting, for the purposes of organization, being: Jess Raymond, D. A. Sprinkling, J. Horner, Harry Langley and H. H. Grist.

Jess Raymond and J. B. Acland were appointed canvassers for the purpose of soliciting for members and donations.

The following resolution was proposed by J. Horner and unanimously adopted: "That owing to the present depressed economic conditions, which has occasioned a vast amount of unemployment and consequent distress amongst our fellow citizens, this organization appeals to all employers of labor to give preference to white labor."

MILITIA EQUIPMENT TO BE LOANED TO NEEDY

Red Cross Society to Handle Distribution of Blankets and Other Articles

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Co-operation in rendering assistance to the destitute is being extended by the Department of National Defence in a widening of the agreement between the department and the Red Cross Society, the effect of which is to place articles of military equipment, such as blankets, mattresses, etc., at the disposal of the society for the temporary use of those in need of them.

For some time past the department has been besieged with requests from well-meaning charitable organizations appealing for the loan of such articles in order that they might be issued to distressed families.

HAS HAD HEAVY LOSSES

The department's experiences in late years, however, have been unfortunate in that those organizations not infrequently overlooked their obligations in the matter of returning the ticks and blankets when their purpose had been served. In this way a great deal of material was lost and a great deal more rendered useless through negligence.

An agreement already exists between the Red Cross Society and the Department whereby the society assumes responsibility for any articles loaned out to it. This has operated successfully in the past. The department is now willing to extend the operations of this agreement to other organizations, provided that those organizations apply for what they need to the Red Cross and also provided that the Red Cross takes proper inquiry, endorses and takes responsibility for the request.

METHOD OF PROCEDURE

The procedure would be for the local charitable associations to make their application to the local branch of the Red Cross Society, which in turn would investigate, and, if the request is approved, forward the application to the district officer commanding the military district concerned. Such articles as are needed will then be issued—for return to the department in due course.

BUSH LORE SAVES LIFE OF BABY SON

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Nov. 21.—The bush lore of an elderly aboriginal woman, whom his parents employed as cook, saved the life of twenty-month-old Jimmy Bowcock here.

The baby was playing near a clump of blackberry bushes when a deadly trapdoor spider bit him, injecting its poison into his foot and clinging there till it was killed. The black cook cut a piece from his foot, rubbed in some tribal herbs, and when the doctor arrived expecting to find the child either dead or beyond aid, he found the bush fellow of the native woman had been successful.

PRICE OF BREAD IS DOWN AT WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21.—Principal bread companies in this city today announced a one-cent reduction in the price of bread. The one-pound loaf will sell for 6 cents and the twenty-ounce staple at 7 cents. Lower price of flour was given as the reason for the cut.

RIDINGTON TO GIVE ADDRESS

Librarian of British Columbia University Speaks to Canadian Club Monday

RECENTLY COMPLETED SURVEY OF DOMINION

JOHN RIDINGTON

John Ridington, who is to address the Canadian Club here on Monday at noon, has been librarian of the University of British Columbia since the institution entered on its teaching functions in 1915. Under his direction the book collection has grown from practically nothing to 80,000 volumes. The library is housed in a specially designed granite building, costing more than $500,000.

During his fifteen years of library work, Mr. Ridington has been honored by his fellow librarians in being chosen to several important offices. He has been president of the British Columbia Library Association; twice president of the Pacific Northwest Library Association; and for the past three years has been president of the Canadian Library Association. He has also served on several important committees of the American Library Association, the great international organization with 12,000 members. He was one of those interested in securing the passage of the present Library Act of British Columbia, and was a member of the executive of the new survey of this province, completed two years ago.

DOMINION SURVEY

During the past summer, Mr. Ridington has been chairman of a commission to report on library conditions throughout the Dominion of Canada. Associated with him in this work were Dr. George H. Locke, of Toronto, and Miss Mary J. L. Black, of Port William. The work was undertaken at the request of the American Library Association, and financed by funds provided by the Carnegie Corporation of New York, which administers a trust left by Andrew Carnegie for the development of education throughout the overseas dominions.

To gather material for this survey, Mr. Ridington visited every province of the Dominion, interviewed Dominion and provincial governments, librarians, educationists, journalists and others interested in the development of the library movement. The information thus obtained is now being organized, and it is expected will be published in a report that will be issued next spring. Some of this information will be given in Mr. Ridington's address.

COMES FROM ENGLAND

Mr. Ridington has had an interesting career. As a young man he came out from England to Western Canada, and taught school in Manitoba. For six years he owned and edited a newspaper at Carleton Place, leaving this to take a position on the editorial staff of The Manitoba Free Press. He came to British Columbia twenty years ago, and in 1915 was appointed by Dr. Westbrook, first president of the university, to his present position.

In addition to lecturing on various phases of libraries, and the relation of books to education and culture, Mr. Ridington has main-

WOMAN INJURED AS AUTOMOBILE DROPS IN BRUNETTE RIVER

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 21.—Mrs. C. Head, of Port Coquitlam, is in the Royal Columbian Hospital with a badly cut hand and head injuries sustained when she had a miraculous escape from death Wednesday evening in the Brunette River.

Driving over the North Road between Port Coquitlam and New Westminster at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Head's car got out of control on the approach to the bridge over the Brunette River. It struck a post, tumbled into the stream six feet below, where it lay with four wheels in the air.

Mrs. Head broke a window with her hand and got out of the automobile, which lay in three feet of water, and made her way to shore.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membrane with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

B.C. FISHERY MATTERS ARE UNDER REVIEW

Hon. E. N. Rhodes Meets Provincial Authorities in Informal Conference

FEDERAL MINISTER IS IMPRESSED WITH B.C.

Comprehensive details of the commercial fisheries situation in British Columbia were laid before Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Federal Minister of Fisheries, yesterday afternoon by Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary and Commissioner of Fisheries for the province, and John P. Babcock, leading authority on fish of North Pacific waters.

Arrival of Mr. Rhodes from Vancouver. While no official statement was made on the conference, it is understood that a general discussion took place on matters of interest to both departments.

Working co-operation between Federal and provincial Governments on the matter of fisheries was exemplified recently when Hon. E. N. Rhodes, at the request of Hon. S. L. Howe, authorized the opening of herring fisheries for reduction purposes on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, to meet an abnormal condition of unemployment, and thereby retain at work men who otherwise would have been let out at the close of the herring season.

Interviewed by The Colonist shortly after arrival, Mr. Rhodes expressed himself as greatly impressed with the tangible evidence of growth shown in the Canadian West. His present mission, said the minister, was in the nature of a general investigation into the fishery industry of Canada as a whole, and had already yielded many experiences justifying confidence in the future.

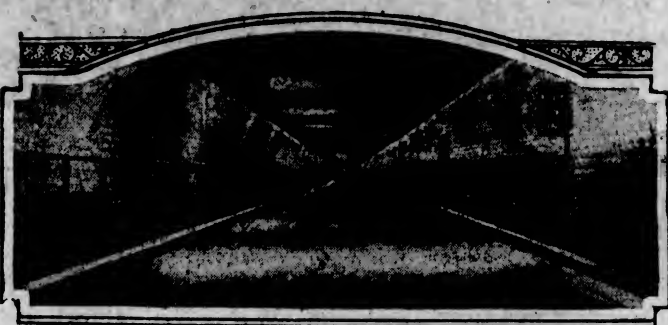

At Vancouver, Mr. Rhodes continued, he had put in a busy period of four days in which a large number of delegations had been heard. He will remain in the city until Monday before returning East.

Favors Modification Of Dry Law in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 21.—C. C. Crabbe, father of Ohio's dry law and former attorney-general of Ohio, today announced he favored a modification of the Crabbe Act to permit the sale of light wines and beer. Crabbe said the enforcement of the present stringent law in Ohio, was "not satisfactory," and that the people of the state had not respected the statute.

The former attorney-general said the law had failed to promote true temperance and that it needed to be modified to suit the majority of the people of the state.

PIONEER PRIEST OF B.C. PASSES

Father Le Jeune, of Kamloops, Worked Among Indians for Fifty Years

TAUGHT THEM TO READ

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 21.—Rev. Jean Marie Le Jeune, O.M.I., pioneer missionary, who for more than half a century labored among the Indians of British Columbia, died at St. Mary's Hospital today. It was Father Le Jeune who taught the Shuswap Indians to read and write shorthand, and through that medium instructed them not only in the tenets of the Roman Catholic faith, but in useful arts.

Born in Plymber, Brittany, April 2, 1835, he graduated from St. Pat College in 1873. He took his vows in 1875 and was ordained a priest in 1879. The same year, in company with two other young priests, they came out to the Catholic mission on the Columbia River.

LEARNED LANGUAGES
It was on the journey across the Atlantic and overland to the Pacific Coast that Father Le Jeune, who was already the master of twelve modern and ancient languages, learned the Chinook jargon of the West. In order to perfect himself in this, and later to obtain the correct pronunciation of the Indian languages, he made use of the French system of shorthand perfected by Duploy.

One day in the Southern Okanagan, for he was commissioned to do missionary work among the Okanagan and Shuswap, he noticed south of Penticton some Indian pictographs or painted signs. "This was an inspiration to him, for he argued that if the Indian's mind could interpret a wavy line as representing a journey, it should be easy to teach him that a stroke or a curve represented a distinct sound. He took a crippled youth as his first student, and in two months the lad was an expert shorthand writer.

PUBLISHED MAGAZINE
Then the father and his pupil engaged in instructing others, until at last a large number of Indians were proficient in the sign writings. This fact created a new problem for the little priest to solve, for without a publication for the natives to read their newly acquired accomplishment was worth little. So Father Le Jeune obtained a crude mimeograph machine and started to issue a monthly journal. This was in the early 'nineties, and for nearly forty years he continued to publish what was probably the most unique journal in Canada, The Kamloops Wawa.

Through the pages of this publication the priest not only taught the lessons of the church, but instructed them in sanitation, household arts, geography and the requirements of the white man's civilization.

WROTE BOOKS
In addition to editing The Wawa he wrote a book on the "Wawa Shorthand," a Chinook dictionary, and was engaged in his later years in a monumental work, a Shuswap grammar, a preliminary review of which he issued several years ago.

No danger was too great to be faced by the good father in his missionary endeavors; no distance too long to be covered by him when duty called. He founded twenty-five missions in various parts of the interior and found time to assist in mission work on the Coast about Sechart and Sillanet (Powell River).

His headquarters were at Kamloops, and here he was the friend of everyone, no matter what his creed, color or religion might be, and this friendship was reciprocated, for all who knew him admired him for his fine, unassuming character and personal qualities.

A brother, Father Louis Le Jeune, professor of literature at Ottawa University, survives.

"PENMANIZE YOUR UNDERWEAR BUYING!"

Different types of men require different types of Underwear

If you are robust, never catch cold, easily kept warm, you need radically different underwear than if you were easily chilled, had poor circulation and were subject to colds.

Furthermore, occupation is a factor. The man who drives or rides to work in a warm car, works indoors all day and rides home at night, doesn't require the underwear-protection needed by the man whose work is outdoors in all kinds of weather.

Because there is such a difference in men's underwear requirements and because it is important to any man that he wears the correct type and weight, we present the accompanying chart for your guidance.

Your needs are met in one or other of the Penmans lines described. Find your type, then order by the Penmans name and number and you'll enjoy maximum underwear comfort and protection this Winter.

Since 1868 Penmans Underwear has been "the standard of excellence". The name stands for high quality, for fine workmanship, for easy comfort, fit, durability and the utmost value. You can't go wrong in buying Penmans.

Ladies! A Word to You!!

Bring this new idea to the attention of the men of your family. You're interested, of course, in keeping them well and comfortable.

Look over the chart yourself. Perhaps you can help with a decision that will mean much to the health and well-being of those whose health and well-being mean everything to you.

For fine quality, sterling worth and long life there is no underwear quite so good as

Among the types of health underwear listed below, is your kind—the one best fitted to take care of your individual needs. You'll find it in a moment. Then, if you order it, you'll enjoy exceptional comfort and protection this Winter. Every Penmans garment is full size, well-tailored and easy fitting.

MEDIUM

Penmans No. 95 is the finest natural Merino underwear made. For fifty years Canada's most popular medium weight. Gives healthful protection in coldest weather, yet is not too heavy for indoor wear. Penmans No. 71 is an excellent natural Merino at somewhat lower cost for men who do not desire underwear of No. 95 quality.

LIGHT

Penmans light weight pure wool underwear is the highest grade made in the world. Ivory in tone. Light, yet very warm and comfortable. Recommended for those who work indoors, yet need sufficient protection to guard them from chills when they are outdoors.

HEAVIEST

Penmans Serviceable Scotch Knit. A good heavy grade for outdoor workers or in districts subject to severe cold weather in Winter. Has the weight and the warmth, without too much bulk.

FLEECE-LINED

For those requiring maximum protection, we recommend Penmans No. 37. Extra heavy and fleece-lined. Suitable for outdoor workers. The soft cotton fleece next to the skin makes it most comfortable to wear. Durability unequalled.

BALBRIGGAN

No. 222, 223 and 46 are extremely light cotton underwear suitable only for those who keep warm easily, are immune to colds and not liable to chills from sudden temperature changes. Not recommended for any but those accustomed to wear very light undergarments all year around. Made in short or long sleeve and leg lengths.

FINE ELASTIC RIB COTTON

For those who require warmth and ample protection, yet do not prefer woollen underwear, we recommend a choice from the various Penmans fine elastic rib cotton lines. Easy-fitting and durable-made in all the different styles.

In addition to the above, there are many other lines of Penmans Health Underwear from which you may choose.

Clubs and Societies

Salt Spring, W.A.

The annual meeting of the Salt Spring Island branch of the Women's Auxiliary to M.S.C.C. was held on Wednesday. A short business meeting, with the president, Mrs. H. Moorehouse, in the chair, was followed by the treasurer's report, which showed a successful financial year, and an increased number of members. For the election of officers Canon J. W. Flinton took the chair. He first read a letter from the Lord Bishop of the diocese, drawing attention to the impending visit of the assistant bishop of Honan, China, on his way from the Lambeth conference, and whose journey will be broken in Victoria, where, for two days, he will be the guest of Bishop and Mrs. Schofield, and during his visit he will address a meeting in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, December 9. Mrs. H. Johnson was appointed as the delegate from the Salt Spring branch to attend. Canon Flinton also stated that a corporate communion is to be held in celebration of St. Andrew's Day, in St. Paul's Church, Ganges, on December 4. The following is the list of officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Moorehouse, re-elected by acclamation; vice-president, Mrs. D. Simpson; secretary, Mrs. H. Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. G. B. Young; thank-offering secretary, Mrs. S. F. Beech; tea convener, Mrs. C. Seymour.

Cathedral Bazaar

The gymnasium of the Memorial Hall presented an attractive appearance on Wednesday on the occasion of the annual bazaar held by the Cathedral branches of the W.A. Flags of the British Empire and maple leaves were used on some stalls, while others were gay with Oriental colorings and Indian draperies. A clever gymnastic display was given by dainty little girls from the Gee Gong Tong, which received much applause. Afternoon tea, served in the adjoining rooms, proved popular.

Presbyterians of Victoria Welcome Rev. Frank Baird

Rev. Frank Baird, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, who is a visitor in Victoria, was the guest of honor at a reception in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last evening, which was attended by His Honor R. Randolph Bruce, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, and Miss MacKenzie.

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, as chairman for the evening, expressed his pleasure in having the Moderator of the General Assembly as their guest and called on Col. James Scroggie, who, on behalf of the session, extended a cordial welcome to the guest of the evening. In the absence of the Moderator of Presbytery, Thomas Humphries conveyed the greetings from that body. In doing so, he referred to the fact that the Moderator was a native of the Maritime Provinces, from whence had come many distinguished men in education, state and church. Some of these, he said, had previously served the Moderator's chair, among them being the late minister of St. Andrew's Church.

LT-GOVERNOR'S WELCOME
His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor expressed his pleasure at being present to receive the Moderator and hoped that his visit would result in much good to the churches in British Columbia. It was his privilege, he said, to welcome visitors from time to time and none gave him more pleasure than those who were leaders in the great work of the church.

Dr. Baird, in reply, expressed his appreciation of the reception given to him on his first visit to Victoria. His itinerary, he said, included traveling some 10,000 miles in order to visit the various centres of the activities of the church. He said he was delighted with the city, its balmly air, perennial flowers and its equable climate.

TO PREACH SUNDAY
At the close of the meeting the Women's Guild served refreshments, after which many of those present were presented to the Moderator. The musical part of the programme was in charge of Jesus Longfield. Before adjournment it was intimated that the Moderator would preach in St. Andrew's Church, Sunday morning, and at Erskine and St. Paul's, Sunday evening.

Among the visitors at the reception was the Bishop of Columbia, who called to pay his respects to Dr. Baird, who is an old friend of the early days in the Maritimes.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

An enjoyable concert was held on Friday in the Royal Oak Hall. The proceeds, $37.80, were given to the Solarium, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. Mesdames Caris and Thorpe decorated the hall and made arrangements for the concert. Rev. F. Comley took the chair and gave a short address. Mrs. Appleton spoke on behalf of the Solarium. The following artists gave their services, Mesdames Bamford and Spur, H. Cotton, Messrs. Boorman and McPhail and Harkness, a contralto, Mr. Flowright's stringed orchestra was much enjoyed; also a quartette from the Wilkinson Road Church. The next five hundred car party will be held on November 27 in the Royal Oak Hall.

Manufacturers of sporting goods in India are complaining that the supply of mulberry wood from the Chanha Manga forests is proving insufficient for their increasing needs.

REPORTS READ TO MOTHERS' UNION

A diocesan meeting of the Mothers' Union was held at St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay, on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. C. D. Schofield gave an address. Taking as her subject, "My Associations With the Mothers' Union in the Old Land," she told of a meeting of 400 women, which she addressed at Chichester. She also described the colorful program at the conference, concluding with "The Call of the Mothers' Union Applies to Every Churchwoman." She then complimented the union upon its splendid efforts in providing such an array of garments for the V.O.N. Mrs. Sidney Oliver gave an excellent report of the World-Wide Conference held in London during the summer. "Fellowship in Marriage," "How to Attract Young Married Women," being some of the subjects discussed, advocating the coaxing method and not the driving force.

Mrs. Oliver presented Mrs. Cropper, the president, with the affiliation certificate. Mrs. Horace Hamlet also reported on the London conference, at which delegates from all parts of the world gathered. A feature of the afternoon was the playing of a gramophone record of Mrs. Wilberforce's address to the conference on "The Responsibilities of Mothers."

The president was presented with a leather satchel and a collection bag. Mrs. A. G. Price moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Schofield for her address and to Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Hamlet for their reports.

A social hour was spent, tea being served by the Oak Bay Circle.

LADIES' CHOIR LOSES CONDUCTOR OWING TO PRESSURE OF DUTIES

Owing to pressure of professional duties in connection with his position as supervisor of singing in the Victoria city schools and to special work which he is doing in the preparation of high school choirs for the Musical Festival, which is to come off next Spring, F. Waddington has found it necessary to resign his position as conductor of the Victoria Ladies' Choir.

Mr. Waddington's resignation was submitted to a general meeting of the choir, held last Tuesday evening, and at a special meeting of the executive, held last night, the report of a committee delegated to interview the conductor with a request that he reconsider his decision was heard. This made it quite clear that he could not continue, and the organization therefore was forced to accept his decision, with a resolution of regret and an expression of appreciation for the interest he had shown in building up the young society and developing it to its present successful position. Mr. Waddington, at the unanimous and urgent request of the choir, has consented to continue his connection with the choir in an advisory capacity until the Christmas holidays, and in the meantime the appointment of a new conductor is under consideration.

PUTNAM'S CORN EXTRACTOR
Is Painless-Safe-Efficient

The Victoria Ladies' Choir was organized two years ago, and about a week ago gave its third recital. Although it is one of the youngest choirs in the city, it had the distinction of winning the shield for ladies' choirs at the last Musical Festival here, and also secured a shield for attaining the highest marks of any choir entered in the festival.

The president, Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin, presided at last night's meeting.

Young Doctor: "How's your practice?"
Second Ditto: "In the morning hardly anyone comes, and in the afternoon the rush falls off a bit."

Craig Wood Leading Formidable Field in Oregon Open Tourney

New Jersey Pro Shoots 69 to Top List by One Stroke
—Al Espinosa and Sarazen Tied for Second Place—Amateur Provides Sensation

GENE SARAZEN

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—Craig Wood, stocky long-driving New Jersey professional, at the end of the first day's play in the 1930 Oregon golf tournament, led the field of ninety entrants by a one-stroke margin. Wood scored the difficult Columbia course in 69—three under par. Two other professionals trailed Wood by one stroke: Al Espinosa, Chicago, and Gene Sarazen, New York, each posted cards of 70. Behind them came Al Zimmerman, Multnomah club, Portland, and Clarence Clark, Tulsa, Okla., with 71's.

Dr. O. F. Willing and Johnny Robbins, both of Portland, led the amateurs with 72's, even par for the eighteen holes.

Mei Smith, Columbia professional; Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente, and Abe Espinosa, Chicago, all professionals, also hung up 72's.

Arlie Kyle, Portland amateur, provided the sensation of the first day's play. Kyle started badly, taking a seven on the first hole. On the second, however, a 164-yard layup, his drive landed just off the edge of the green and the ball rolled straight for the pin and dropped into the cup. Kyle finished with a 74 to place him among the leaders.

IDEAL CONDITIONS
The golfers found the weather ideal. The sky was clear and only a slight wind stirred.

Scores of the leaders on the first eighteen holes:

Craig Wood, New Jersey, 35-34-69.

Al Espinosa, Chicago, 36-34-70.

Gene Sarazen, New York, 36-34-70.

Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland, 38-37-75.

Mei Smith, Portland, 37-38-75.

Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente, 38-37-75.

ESPINOSA TO TEAM UP WITH GENE SARAZEN

Former Seattle Pro to Be Partnered With New Yorker in Golf Exhibition Here

MATCH TO START AT 1:30 O'CLOCK

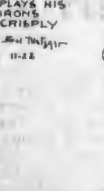

Al Espinosa, former Seattle pro, and Gene Sarazen, stocky little Italian, who beat out the great Bobby Jones for the United States Open title in 1922, will show their wares to the local golfing public on Wednesday afternoon at the Victoria Golf Club, at 1:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made yesterday by Phil Taylor, club professional. The visiting pros will match their skill against Taylor and Dave Black, professional at the club, in a "Highly Interesting" exhibition match.

Sarazen and Espinosa, both members of the United States Ryder Cup team, are expected to draw a large gallery, as they are two of the finest golfers in the country. Sarazen has occupied gold medal's spotlight ever since he conquered the "Atlanta Wizard" over the Skokie course eight years ago, at the age of twenty-one, while Espinosa is no stranger to the majority of local lovers of the game. Espinosa played in the Pacific Northwest Open tourney at the Colwood Golf and Country Club in 1922, while pro at the Inglewood Club, Seattle.

HAS GREAT CAREER
Sarazen has blazed the golf trail for many years, having been a United States and British Open

Hit Ball Crisply at Contact

WALTER HAGEN PLAYS HIS IRON CRISP

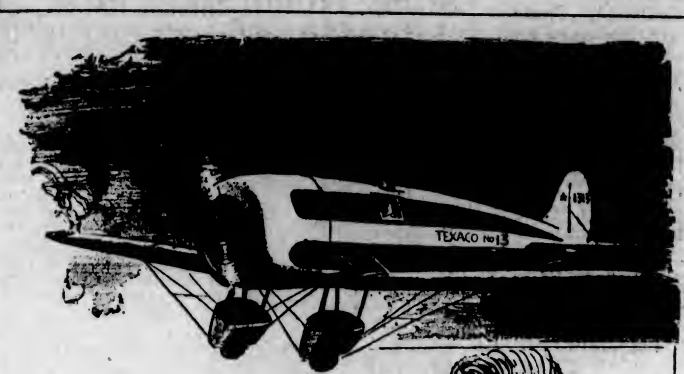

By BOL METZGER
You must play your irons with plenty of snap. One can't get away with this shot unless the ball is struck crisply. That was one of the new points in favor of Hagen's fine play with the irons.

Now crispness may be almost impossible of definition in so far as it applies to golf. But it means a hard hit at the moment of contact. You haven't a full swing to execute and are not after distance. But you are after direction and stop. To get stop you must impart spin. You can only get spin with a crisp stroke, just as you can only put English on a ball with a crisp stroke. No matter how short the swing may be.

Crispness doesn't mean a long and hard swing. It merely means plenty of spin imparted as contact is made. You can't get it swinging through slowly. It is chiefly wrist action at contact.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Nobel Invented Dynamite—Alfred Nobel, who, by his invention of dynamite, smokeless powder and other explosives, amassed a fortune of about $9,000,000, established the famous Nobel Prize Foundation, from which several prizes are distributed annually to promote the general welfare of humanity. It is said that the great scientist felt compunction about having involuntarily contributed to make warfare more destructive, and that he conceived his plan in a spirit of counteracting the lethal effects of his inventions.

Truffles Are Found by Hogs—Truffles, a fleshy fungus growing under the soil, is readily located with the aid of trained pigs, who have a keen scent and greatly developed uprooting habits. Such a trained sow can easily uproot about twelve pounds of this aromatic delicacy in a day. Reference: Any unabridged dictionary.

P.N.W. NET RANKINGS ARE RELEASED

Harrison and Marie McNab Ranked First In Northwest Tennis

Tacoma Flash and Mainland Girl Awarded Top Places in P.N.W. Net Circles—Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Edwards Placed—R. Kirkbride Ranked

Bradshaw Harrison

As the result of painstaking examination and checking of all available records of the various tournaments held during the past season throughout the Northwest, the Pacific Northwest Tennis Association, Tacoma, and the Mainland Tennis Association, Vancouver, have placed the top of the men's and women's tennis list, respectively, by the ranking committee of the association.

The ranking committee is composed of the following: Henry S. Gray, Portland; R. D. Kirkbride, Vancouver; and A. E. Grafton, Tacoma. Owing to the laxity of some of the members in not furnishing their tournament records some players may not have received as much credit as they deserve; but, if so, the fault is with the clubs, the ranking committee points out. According to the president, the committee devoted a large amount of time and conscientious attention to the selection of the players.

GIVEN TOP PLACE
Bradshaw Harrison, the Tacoma Flash, wielded his racket from Oregon, throughout Washington and across the courts of British Columbia with deadly results and the committee voted unanimously in placing him in undisputed first place. Mel Dranga, Seattle, was the choice for second place, while Henry Prussoff, also from the Sound city, was given third position.

Lieutenant-Commander J. I. G. Edwards, Victoria's top ranking tennis player, gained ninth place. Edwards sprang into the limelight while the season was still in its infancy and continued his brilliant exploits as the 1930 curtain was lowered.

Marie McNab, star fair sex exponent of the Summer pastime, hailing from Vancouver, was the choice of the committee in the women's division. Miss McNab bounded from one court to the other, and showed up well in all tournaments in which she competed en route and well deserved the top ranking. Miss D. Gillespie is given second place and Muriel Munro third.

Eighth place on the list comes to Victoria, Mrs. Edwards, wife of Lieutenant-Commander Edwards, was the choice for that position. Mrs. Edwards played well in the various tournaments, and her showing did not escape the eyes of the ranking committee.

KIRKBRIDE RANKED
Ronnie Kirkbride, Victoria's star junior tennis player, is given third position in the junior boys under eighteen, while top place goes to Don Lewis, the Rose City ace. Robert Johnson, Portland, is second, and George Yoshi, flashy Vancouver Japanese, is ranked fourth. Hilla Goodrick, Portland, heads the junior girls under fifteen, while J. Hill, Seattle, is given second position.

Bradshaw Harrison and Robert Hoogs, Portland, head the men's doubles list, with Howard Langlie and Lloyd Nordstrom, Seattle, in second place. Women's doubles, junior girls, and mixed doubles are not ranked, it not being customary to do so.

Loughran Comes Back to Decision King Levinsky

Former Light-Heavyweight Champion Takes Count of Nine in Second But Takes Every Other Round in Whipping Jewish Boy—13,500 See Fight

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Tommy Loughran, boxing wizard from Philadelphia, completely subdued the wild, heavy-swinging King Levinsky, the ex-fish peddler, in their ten-round bout in the Chicago Stadium tonight. Knocked to the floor for a count of nine in the second round, Loughran, former world's light-heavyweight champion, came back with all his amazing boxing skill to defeat Levinsky beyond all question of doubt.

Loughran won nine of the ten rounds, losing only the second, in which he was floored when Levinsky hit him on the side of the head with a right-hand punch he started off his shoe.

The verdict of the two judges and Referee Dave Barry was unanimous and met with a roar of approval from the 13,500 spectators who paid $38,750 to witness the battle.

Says Imperial Conference Was Great Success Apart From Economic Questions

Hon. Hugh Guthrie Reviews Problems Settled at London Meeting

QUEBEC, Nov. 21.—Generally speaking, the Imperial Conference was a great success, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, and the first of the Canadian delegates to return from the conference stated here last night. On all questions except economic questions, complete agreement was reached, on this real progress was made and a decision to continue consideration of it at Ottawa next year was reached.

When approached by newspapermen on board the Empress of Australia, Mr. Guthrie gave a comprehensive review of the work of the conference. The two chief questions discussed were constitutional and economic matters. On the constitutional side interest was centred in certain matters which had been left over from the 1926 conference, at which the doctrine of equality of status had been defined and on the economic side in the proposals of Premier R. B. Bennett of Empire tariff preferences.

REPORTS CONSIDERED

Questions left over from 1926, Mr. Guthrie explained, related to the Colonial Laws Validity Act, the Merchant Shipping Act, the Naturalization of Aliens Act, all statutes of the Parliament of Great Britain which up till then had been in force in all the Dominions. The 1926 conference appointed a subcommittee to consider and report on the effect of British statutes on Dominion legislation. The report of the committee was adopted by the Parliament of Canada, and the recent conference had to deal with a number of questions arising out of the report.

While on a great majority of the points a unanimous report was agreed upon, some of those passed upon involve amendments to the constitutional acts under which the various Dominions now carry on. Premier Bennett, Mr. Guthrie added, had received a number of protests from provincial governments against any amendment to the British North America Act without consultation with the provinces. Protests came from Ontario, Quebec, British Columbia, and one or two other provinces.

RIGHTS OF PROVINCES

Mr. Bennett took care to protect the rights of the provinces and in order to obviate this difficulty the conference decided to draft a tentative statute which carries out all the suggested amendments. This will have to be passed by the British Parliament, but first all the Dominions will have to agree. The date for final approval is fixed as September 1, 1931.

The proposed bill will probably come before the Canadian Parliament next session, but in the meantime Premier Bennett will take some steps towards securing the approval of the provinces.

Among the important provisions in the bill is the abrogation of the Colonial Laws Validity Act, except in regard to trusts investments in Great Britain. Another is an amendment to the Merchant Shipping Act designed to secure uniform shipping laws throughout the Empire. Provision is also made for a uniform naturalization act throughout the Empire.

Another provision is designed to give extraterritorial effect to enactments of the Dominions in respect to their own citizens. Hitherto Canadian laws have not applied to Canadians outside of Canada. When travelling abroad Canadians have been subject to British laws. This will be changed.

QUESTION OF APPEALS

The question of appeals to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, said Mr. Guthrie, was left in the same position as in 1926, when it was established that each Dominion had power to abolish appeals if it wished. Another question discussed was the designation of His Majesty in foreign countries. Some Dominions objected to the designation, His Britannic Majesty. The question of the status of citizens of a Dominion naturalized only under the laws of a Dominion when travelling abroad was also considered. In future Governors-General are to be appointed on the advice of the government of the Dominion concerned after consultation with the King. This was the subject of a long discussion. The new arrangement means the British Government will have nothing to do with appointment of Governors-General. After a preliminary discussion with the King himself the Dominion Government will nominate the Governor-General.

STATUS OF COMMISSIONERS
Another important result of the conference is a new status for Dominion High Commissioners in London. They get a step up in the table of precedence and are now entitled to appear at official functions immediately after the British Cabinet Ministers and before the barons.

Upon the whole, said Mr. Guthrie, the conclusions in regard to all constitutional questions were eminently satisfactory and little if any discussion was shown by any Dominion.

In connection with the economic matter Mr. Guthrie said discussion turned on Premier Bennett's definite offer made at the second plenary meeting. A subcommittee was then formed and experts on trade matters were heard. As time went on it became clear that sufficient information in regard to the trade of Great Britain and the Dominions was not available and could not be obtained within a reasonable time.

PREMIER'S SUGGESTION

Premier Bennett urged the inquiry should not be allowed to drop but that consideration should be postponed to the earliest possible date. His suggestion of a meeting in Canada next summer was agreed to and the whole economic discussion will then be continued.

Mr. Guthrie said he felt personally that the consideration of tariff preferences would have continued at the time had it not been for the opening of the Indian Round Table Conference. This conference, he said, would "prove the most important ever held in Great Britain. The Indian delegates had come to London determined on Dominion status and if they did not get it there would be serious trouble. On the other hand, if they did get it, it was doubtful if stable government could be carried on in India.

MISS FRASER ENTERS ALDERMANIC CONTEST

Announces Candidature for City Council Seat—First to Complete Nomination Papers

Miss Kate Fraser, 1126 View Street, has announced she will be a candidate for the Victoria City Council at the coming municipal elections. She has been a resident in the city for the past seven years and has taken a keen interest in municipal affairs during that period. In announcing her platform she stated her aim is strict economy, protection to insure confidence and success to citizens; to guard the natural beauty of Victoria and to keep the Capital City different, yet attractive to visitors and citizens alike, to spend public money in the city and district, to employ the unemployed and to protect against the power of the Zoning Board of Appeal in respect to property.

Miss Fraser called at the city clerk's office Thursday afternoon and completed her nomination papers to be handed in on nomination day. Mrs. R. Smith, 1205 Fernwood Road, is Miss Fraser's second in nomination.

CHAPTER V
 "Now then, Percival, what was the trouble with you last night? Got a bit of the yaller devil, eh?"

Delcourt flushed. He was feeling positively natty this afternoon. All the morning he had been carefully and successfully avoiding Tilda, but she had cornered him at last—and there was no escape. Better to face the music and end the business, however unpleasant the process might be. So, squaring his shoulders, he smiled back into the pretty, bold face of his persecutor.

"It was all right," he replied carelessly, "but I got fed up. Suppose I'm getting too stiff for all that prancing around. But it was a show."

Tilda flung back her shawl impatiently.

"Tork away," she invited, "but let's talk plain. You was fed up because you was jealous. Jee—lousi—you stooped! Jealous of George! Well, you needn't oughter be. He's not my bloke no longer. I've turned him down, Algeon. He's wiped off the style. He was a bit hot. We sorter stalked round on our oyle, but I sent 'im off. No more yaller devil. Where are yer going to tork me tonight?"

She set her arms akimbo, looking her sauciest. It was now or never—and Delcourt went at it pluckily.

"I'm not taking you anywhere, Tilda," he replied, "and I'm sorry you quarreled with George. He's a fine fellow, is George, and I suppose you've been walking out with him for months. Well, go on walking. That's the trick. You can't go swopping around sweethearts. As for me, I'm no sort of bloke for any girl. I don't want to be. Sorry, Tilda, we can be good chums, but I'm not your bloke. I don't wish it. Now we understand—straight, and we'll shake hands on it, eh? You'll be making it up with George and finding him the goods. Of—course."

He held out his hand, but Tilda didn't attempt to take it. Her eyes were bright with anger, she was quivering in resentment.

"So that's the sort y'are," she muttered huskily. "Or right, Algeon—of right. But it won't do here. Picked up with another bit of fluff I s'pose—and Tilda can't go to the wall. How do Percival, or is it good-bye—ee? Ain't goin' to be a bloke, arent' you? Why, I wouldn't pick y' up wif a pair of tongs. Takin' me on sufrage for a bloomin' friend—when I could have a score of boys round me tomorrow. Not for me, Sunny Jim—not for me. Who wants yer frenship? Torkin' thro' your hat like a Dutch uncle! Bye-bye—and you needn't think you can ask twice for a thing. I wouldn't take you at a gift."

It was staggering, fairly staggering. It really worried Delcourt who would not have hurt the feelings of a fly let alone a handsome lass like Tilda. But she didn't wait for him to try and smooth her over, nor did he set off in pursuit down the passage as she evidently expected him to do. Instead, he tilted back his head and boldly congratulated himself on having done a very wise thing. He knew where he was—now Tilda was settled.

You would have expected that, with so much drama, Delcourt would have taken himself off to see the pictures, or a footie match, or something of the kind. Not a bit of it! He wanted more than that. He wanted sympathy. Queer thing, human nature! Delcourt began to realize that he felt the craving to get "out of the mud" into a quiet backwater. Then he thought of the drab little room, two pairs back, where a pretty, refined girl was living patiently, serenely, pervading squalid surroundings with an indefinable charm.

"She's a lady," muttered Delcourt to himself. "That's a fact. Nothing can alter it. Of course, they have come down, anyone can see that. But . . . Nonnie Grenvane is a lady—and I . . . I'd like to meet her father. I'll take my chance and go round there. I've got to study my subject from all angles. Somebody's gone down in a fight in that kid's home. Perhaps she wants a friend as much as I do."

That was Delcourt's way. He was not out to patronize anyone—and he was far too human to be able to play a lone hand. So—he went to Ivy Court—and climbed the rickety stairs with due caution. It wouldn't help the situation if he broke his leg.

Merciful Institutions—hospitals! thought Ronald, "Imagine Mrs. Clanders and a weekly relish of slippers or biosters for six weeks. Help!" He halted, banishing such dismal reflections at sound of the loud tones of a raucous voice.

Someone was swearing. Someone else was sobbing.

And the sounds proceeded from behind the closed door.

You can't always check impetuous action. Delcourt had that door open before giving himself time to reflect that folk—mostly prefer to keep family disputes to themselves. He never forgot the scene before him as he stood on the threshold of that shabby living-room.

A lamp flared on the table—on one side stood Nonnie—wide-eyed and pale, a small hand resting on the wall behind her, the other—wearing a short beard, his hair uncut and untidy, his appearance shabby, but his features good had it not been for marks of dissipation. Rather in advance of his sister, his eyes sparkling and hands clenched was young Dick.

It was the boy to whom the man was speaking, his tones thick and slurred, his features eloquent.

"You mind your own business, kid," stuttered the man, "or I'll murder you. It's no concern of yours. Out you get, or I'll break my stick across your shoulders. Now, my girl, no sulking. You'll marry the man I order you to marry—and no more temper. I'm going to be obeyed . . . You'll marry—"

Then—he was noting how Nonnie's gaze had traveled towards the open door, he had turned and seen Delcourt standing there—and, whilst the girl uttered a cry of pleading and dismay, he had matched up his stick and came staggering towards the stranger.

Little Dick, seeing the terror on Nonnie's face ran between, but his father gripped him by the coat collar flinging him aside.

"Now then," shouted the half-drunken man, "what's your business here, what's your business? Who gave you leave to enter my room? I'll have an answer, I'll have your blood if I find you interfering with my girl. Now then . . ."

"Dad!" screamed Nonnie, in agony. "don't talk so. It's . . . I'm the gentleman who spoke so kindly to Dick last week. Oh, dad—"

For, blind with reasonless rage, the man had raised his stick to bring down on the visitor's head.

But Delcourt was too quick for him, and slipping aside caught the drunkard's wrist in so firm a grasp that the stick fell from his hand.

CYCLIST WAS HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ACCIDENT ON ROAD

A motorcycleist, George Reid, was held solely responsible for an accident to an automobile, driven by Herbert Medley, in a trial which took place before Judge Lammiman yesterday in the county court. The damages against the cyclist were placed at $170, which was the amount required to repair the auto.

The accident took place near a bend in the Malahat Road not far south of the Shawanigan Lake cut-off. The evidence showed that Reid, who was going in the direction of Duncan, had turned out from behind a bus in an attempt to pass it. In doing so he collided with the auto driven by Medley.

The defence offered was that the brakes of the auto were not in shape and that the car did not stop quickly enough. The court felt that a loaded car which stopped within fifteen feet on a down grade was not in bad shape as far as the brakes were concerned, and ascribed the sole blame to the cyclist.

Gordon Cameron appeared for the plaintiff, Medley, while P. J. Sinnott represented the defendant, Reid.

VILLAGE FOR BOMBERS
 To provide target practice for airplanes in a recent aviation meet in Italy, an elaborate reproduction of an Arabian village was built in miniature. The model was raked with aerial bombs shot from airplanes, flying low. Big bombers and small scout machines were used in the attack, and the manoeuvres were carried out in strict accordance with the latest Italian military developments. The speed in which the village was completely destroyed was declared to be an indication of the effective offensive of the present airplane in waging war.

$80,000,000 TRIAL SET FOR ISTANBUL

Descendants of Abdul Hamid Seek Compensation From England for Property of Sultans

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Nov. 21.—Trial of an $80,000,000 suit opens in the Turco-English tribunal in Istanbul tomorrow when thirty-seven descendants of Abdul Hamid, one of the late Turkish sultans, will attempt to secure from England compensation for property of the sultans in Iraq and Palestine confiscated by the British Government. The property listed in the suit includes holdings in Bagdad and in the rich oil fields of Mosul.

A similar claim against the French for Syrian property was rejected by the Turco-French tribunal on the grounds that the Turkish Government denied the citizenship of the Ottoman royalty, but since the Turkish Government has subsequently granted citizenship to the sultan's widows, the status of the present case apparently has been changed.

Two elderly widows of Abdul Hamid, and the youngest wife of the last sultan, Vahdeddine, who was a palace guard's daughter, were readmitted to Turkey in 1928.

At an election meeting the candidate had been talking for an hour, and there were signs that his audience was becoming restive. Suddenly a voice shouted, "Take off your hat!"

The candidate looked surprised. "What hat?" he asked. "The one you're talking through."

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If November 22 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. There is only one danger period—from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Planetary influences on this date are rather negative, and its events are likely to be humdrum. In the evening, however, there is a decided assurance of romance; very propitious for those "in love."

A child born on this November 22 promises to be ambitious, shrewd and far-sighted, and will have the confidence of its associates. These traits will be visible during youth, and given the proper environment, its ultimate success is assured.

No one can produce great things who is not thoroughly sincere with himself or herself. This explains, in very few words, why your life has not been the success which you are a poor judge of character, and are thereby often "let down." You are a law to yourself and rarely, if ever, take, or ask for, advice. You fortunately do not air your troubles in the home, and within its walls you are seen at your best. The emotional side of your character is very strong, and you are not afraid or ashamed to show affection and love.

In Great Britain they contend that is because the individual is weak that he assumes a poor position when he stands or sits. It is the weakness of the body that lets it sag.

In the United States and Canada the feeling is that it is the poor position, the careless position one assumes, that causes the ailments.

I am of the opinion that carelessness may be a factor in some cases, and that inherited weakness may be the cause in other cases.

My thought is in no way to enter the controversy but to try and show what happens to the body and the working of the body processes when one sits or stands in a careless position.

In the first place a careless, slouchy, or stooped position means round shoulders, flat chest, and a sagging abdomen.

The flat chest means insufficient room for the lungs to expand properly, and to some extent lessens the outward movement of the heart.

These are "vital organs," and their work should not be hampered. The sagging abdomen means that all the organs—liver, stomach, intestines and others—are crowded downwards and naturally cannot do their work properly. Hence follows indigestion of various types and constipation.

All these abdominal organs, in which the circulation of the blood should be maintained at a steady rate, are filled with blood that is not sufficiently pure to do good work; it is more or less stagnant.

You can thus see that if you allow your body to droop or sag as you stand or sit, that you are lessening its ability to work by as much as twenty-five per cent at least.

This means you are not only going to be that less efficient in your work, but you are actually inviting trouble in the various organs of the body by slowing up the circulation of the blood.

All you need to remember to get a correct position is to sit tall and stand tall.

This throws the chest out, and draws the abdomen in, the shoulders back, and the chin back.

Trying to touch the toes with knees straight, about twenty times, night and morning, will "tighten" the abdominal muscles, and tight abdominal muscles means an erect carriage.

ROBOT POSTOFFICE
 Tests of a mechanical postoffice for parcels in Munich, are reported to have been successful, and the system may be installed in other German cities. The equipment is circular in shape with a sorting outfit in the centre and loading machinery about the circumference. Packages are carried on trolleys to the entrance of the sorter, which is shaped like a turbine. After being stamped they are loaded into openings according to the addresses. Slides and endless chains then convey the parcels to the proper loading platforms.

Warder: "You are to leave here today."
 Prisoner: "Who has had a year of peace and comfort? What have I done wrong now?"

WHEN ANYONE TELLS YOU BRITISH COLUMBIA BEERS ARE NOT PURE AND WHOLESOME

Don't Believe it! IT ISN'T SO!

SELF-APPOINTED and irresponsible critics have published statements reflecting on the quality of British Columbia Beers. They have said that British Columbia beers are not pure and wholesome beverages. DON'T BELIEVE IT. The undermentioned Breweries of British Columbia are doubtful whether it is worth time and expense to meet such assertions, but they have decided to take this means of assuring the public that British Columbia beers are beverages of the highest purity, superior in quality and comparing well with the best European varieties. When you are told otherwise, DON'T BELIEVE IT!

Continuous tests PROVE the quality. The reputable firm of analytical chemists, MacDonald & MacDonald of Vancouver and Victoria have just completed an analysis of four different varieties of beer made by the undermentioned Breweries of British Columbia, and the report PROVES conclusively the purity and wholesomeness of the beer. The following is the summary of their report:

BRITISH COLUMBIA BEERS ARE PROVED PURE AND WHOLESOME

are guaranteed absolutely matured if produced by the following Breweries: The Vancouver Brewery Limited, Westminster Brewery Limited, Silver Spring Brewery Limited, and Victoria-Phoenix Brewing Company Limited.

SPY THRILLER OPENS AT DOMINION TODAY

"Three Faces East" Is Exciting Story of Wartime Intelligence Service

In the characters of two international spies, Constance Bennett and Eric von Stroheim come to the Dominion Theatre today for a three-day run in "Three Faces East," the Warner Brothers and Vitaphone spy mystery melodrama, adapted from the stage play of Anthony Paul Kelly.

Miss Bennett portrays a war nurse in "Three Faces East," who is secretly employed as a spy in both the British and the German Intelligence Service. Von Stroheim enacts a butler similarly leading a double spy life.

The story, adapted for the screen by Oliver H. P. Garrett, depicts their conflict between love and duty.

ROYAL Today there will be performances of that very charming play, "The Bride," which the Gordon McLeod English

Players have been presenting the last three days. Lillian Christie, in the title role, plays with all her great charm and skill. Gordon McLeod, in the part of a crusty old bachelor, gives one of his most finished performances. On Monday next "Tons of Money," the funniest farce of modern times, will be presented. In the cast of this play two new members of the English Players will make their appearance, Miss Moira Leigh, a beautiful and talented young actress, and Rex Devlin, an actor of great experience.

CAPITOL Frederick Wallace, who directed the New York and London stage presentations of "The Bat," has been cast in a menace character role for Paramount's "The Sea God," which features Richard Arlen and Fay Wray. "The Sea God" is showing at the Capitol Theatre last time today.

PLAYHOUSE Charlie Murray, who plays the role of the Irish policeman in "Around the Corner," the Columbia all-talking comedy showing at the Playhouse Theatre, has played a "cop" in about 50 per cent of all the pictures he has made since he started in the movies.

COLUMBIA Margaret Quimby, leading lady in "Trailing Trouble," the Columbia Universal action comedy now at the Columbia Theatre, played opposite Jack Dempsey when the then world's champion was in Universal pictures.

ENGLISH VOICE HAS COME INTO ITS OWN

"Loose Ends" Forms Excellent Example of High Quality Dialogue and Tone

The British international super-production, "Loose Ends," which starts at the Coliseum today for a six days' run was recently at the George M. Cohan Theatre on Broadway to follow the run of "Atlantic." Its premiere greatly impressed the metropolitan press men, who considered it the finest effort yet made by British studios, even eclipsing "Atlantic" as a production. The New York Times wrote of it as "well spoken and efficiently acted," and the Picture Trade Review was also enthusiastic and labeled it a meritorious piece of dramatic work. This film brings to the fore the great strides the English voice is making in talking pictures and it can safely be said that never was this more exemplified than in "Loose Ends," where the quality and cadence of the voice is so well brought out. Owen Nares is seen in the leading role, supported by Edna Best.

VALENCIA EMPLOYERS SEEKING PROTECTION

Appeal to Spanish Gov't Against Reign of Terror—More Disorders Take Place

MADRID, Nov. 21.—Eight thousand employers in Valencia sent a delegation here to ask Government protection against a "reign of terror" established in their city by warring labor unions, but from other points to which the general strike of the past week has extended came reports the tension had eased appreciably.

The Valencia delegation blamed the "Syndacato Unico," a labor organization, held responsible for much of the recent disorder for "intolerable conditions" under which Valencia workmen have been driven from their jobs under threat of violence over which the local authorities had not been effective.

Minor disorders continued at Barcelona today. In one street fight a mounted policeman was hauled from his horse and set upon by strikers before the mob was dispersed.

New student disorders developed at Alcala, Huelva and Cuenca, and most of the important universities throughout the kingdom have been closed.

At Madrid the newspaper Heraldo de Madrid was suspended for five days because it published an article defending the general strike, and its author was arrested.

STOLE TO HELP SPORT

Jules Gresser, accused of stealing 200,000 francs from his employers in Paris, told the court that he took the money to encourage sport in France. It was proved that Gresser had founded an Athletic Union, on which he had spent his own fortune as well as the stolen funds. The court denied his plea for leniency and sentenced him to four years in prison.

EXPERTS ORGANIZED TO STOP SMUGGLING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—A special squad of expert narcotic agents has been organized to combat smuggling on the Pacific Coast.

The Customs Bureau, announcing the plan today, said the squad is headed by Melvin L. Hanks, crack agent, who carried on the successful Law Lee opium case in Honolulu.

He will have headquarters in San Francisco, with agents in Seattle, Portland, San Diego and Los Angeles.

Government agents have found much smuggling along the West Coast and across the borders from Mexico and Canada, the narcotics brought in by individuals and organized gangs.

HUGE TOWER ERECTED ON NEW YORK BUILDING

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Hidden in fog, steel workers toiled unseen all day atop the Empire State Building to put in place the last piece of a 200-foot mooring mast for dirigibles, 1,284 feet above Fifth Avenue. This is higher than workmen ever have reached a building before.

Tonight a flare floated at a height which would be 102 stories if translated into left floors, and the steel work, including eighty-five office floors of the building, was finished.

Two Killed in Crash At Ontario Crossing

LINDSAY, Nov. 21.—When the car in which they were making a trip from Eildon, Ont., to Lindsay was struck by a freight train, Mrs. Edward Daynes, of Eildon, and her infant baby were instantly killed. Mr. Daynes was seriously hurt and is unconscious in hospital here with unascertained injuries and three other young children were injured.

The accident occurred at the C.N.R. level crossing at Grass Hill, eleven miles northwest of here this morning.

RIVALS CLAIM WINNING FROM RACING SWEEP

One Seeks Partnership in Prize and Reward as Informant

SECOND CLAIMANT APPLIES UNDER CODE

Court action is threatened under a section of the Criminal Code which declares that the informant in any successful suit against the winner of a lottery, shall be entitled to the whole of such winnings in that lottery. The sum at stake is that of $7,397, which represents the second prize in a horse racing sweepstake. This was won by Arthur Cann, 318 Oswego Street.

Already there are two separate attempts to gain possession of the money under the provision of the Criminal Code.

A writ first issued through the firm of White & Martin against Mr. Cann in which it was claimed that Miss Gibbs was a partner in the ticket and entitled to one-half the amount; and in the second place putting forward the claim that she was entitled to the whole of the money under the provisions of the code which made the winnings forfeited to an informant in the matter.

The matter, however, did not stop there. For P. R. Leighton has now come forward representing Charles E. Sonley, of Belmont Avenue, with a claim which is not based on any alleged partnership in the ticket, but depends altogether upon the right to win the prize as an informant.

Mr. Cann is being represented by Tait & Marchant in the actions.

The Criminal Code sets out as follows: "Every sale, loan, gift, barter by any lottery or other mode of chance and all property so given or bartered is liable to be forfeited to any person who sues for same by action or information in any court of competent jurisdiction."

CLOSES CLAIMS WITH GERMANY AND AUSTRIA

HON. C. H. CAHAN Settles Agreements Arising From Requisition of Enemy Property

QUEBEC, Nov. 21.—Satisfactory agreement with Germany and Austria for the settlement of all claims arising out of the requisition of enemy property in Canada and of Canadian property in Germany and Austria during the war were concluded by Hon. C. H. Cahan, Secretary of State, who returned to Canada last night on the Empress of Australia from visits to Berlin and London. The agreements were negotiated in accordance with the terms of The Hague Protocol accepting the Young plan.

At the request of the German Government, Mr. Cahan, accompanied by Thomas Mulvey, under-secretary of state, went to Berlin a month ago. The agreement with Germany was signed by him on behalf of Canada and on behalf of Germany by Dr. Curtius, the German Foreign Minister.

Mr. Cahan then went to London to be present during the Imperial Conference, and while there concluded the agreement with Austria through Baron Frankenstein, the Austrian Ambassador to Great Britain.

VANCOUVER OILS AND MINES GAIN

Slight General Advance Is Made in Quiet Session on Stock Exchange.

PRICE RANGE NARROW

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—There was little doing on the local stock exchange today, with what activity there was being about evenly divided between mining and oil issues. Home and Mercury each gained a point to lead the oils, while Premier Gold and Reeve-McDonald led the mines. Premier dropped 2 cents to 76, while Reeve-McDonald gained 2 cents to 22. Big Missouri was up 1 cent at 48.

Demand for Copper Falls Off as Price Is Marked Upwards

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The copper situation is still confused. Ten days ago, copper was "going begging" at 9 cents a pound. Then a tentative agreement to reduce the world's production next year by 15 per cent was announced and copper went up to 12 cents, accompanied by strong foreign buying.

But it was a flash in the pan. Demand fell off. Prices sagged to 11-12 cents, then to 11 cents, and now sales are being made at 10-12 and 10 cents.

WAINWRIGHT OIL TESTS

(Metheny, Roy & Co., Ltd.)
According to a story published in a Prairie paper recently, important tests of Wainwright crude oil, which show it to yield a large percentage of commercial oils and gasoline under a cracking process, have just been checked by Dr. J. A. Keith, provincial analyst.

The tests showed that over 92 per cent of the crude oil could be recovered in gasoline of a high gravity.

distillate, kerosene and lubricants, leaving a coke residue of something over 6 per cent.
Oil for the tests was obtained from the B.P. No. 36 well, which has an inferior product, says The Star, running some 146 Beaume gravity. The results are, therefore, all the more encouraging in view of such satisfactory showings from an inferior grade of oil.

Dispatch States Farm Loan Board May Extend Scope

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—A special dispatch from Ottawa to The Globe today said:

A partial solution of the difficult problem of tiding over the wheat-farming population of the Western prairies appears to be at hand. One proposal which is being considered is an enlargement of operations of the Farm Loan Board to include all those who are in desperate need of immediate assistance. The Farm Loan Board operated in British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, but not in Saskatchewan and Ontario, where there are provincial boards operating in the same capacity as the Federal body.

The extension of the operations of the Farm Loan Board, which is under consideration, is to empower the board, if deemed necessary, to take over all mortgages from the local companies. These are usually given from five to seven years, and at a higher interest than the Government charges.

The Farm Loan Board could convert them into long-term mortgages and thus relieve the situation very much.

Lumber Production Decrease Continues in West Coast Mills

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—Decrease in the production of 300 sawmills to 41.69 per cent of capacity during the week ending November 15, compared with 45 per cent the previous week, was reported by the West Coast Lumbermen's Association today.

The industry has operated on an average of 47.39 per cent of capacity in the twenty-five weeks since the week ending May 24.

Current new business reported by 228 mills was 2.45 per cent under production for the week, and shipments were 6.16 per cent under, the association reported. Orders received by these mills during the seventeen-week period from July 31 to November 15 exceeded the lumber output by 2.78 per cent.

Production, orders and shipments at the 228 mills for the week were reported in board feet as follows: Mills, 228; production, 109,131,518; orders, 106,461,792; shipments, 102,408,213.

Continued reduction of production until after the New Year may be anticipated, the association said.

Solloway and Mills To Face New Charges

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—Arthur Solloway, K.C., counsel for I. W. C. Solloway, of Solloway, Mills & Co., had a long conference with the Attorney-General today regarding the new aspects of his client's case, which have arisen, it is understood, since the announcement of Col. W. H. Price, that he would prosecute the brokers on theft and conspiracy charges.

GOLD RESERVE OF CANADA NOW $177,174,000

That of Dominion Government Crosses Hundred Million Dollar Mark

AMOUNT BANKS HOLD IS SEVENTY MILLIONS

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—The Dominion Government's gold reserve has crossed the hundred-million mark. A statement issued today by the Department of Finance announced that the gold reserve on October 31 was $107,196,000. Some idea of how the reserve has been piling up can be gained from the fact that on June 30, 1929, it amounted to $61,646,225.

In addition to what the Dominion Government holds, the banks have substantial holdings. Speaking before the Bankers' Association at Montreal last week, the president, Braudry Leman, stated that on September 30 the banks had gold to the extent of $14,630,000 in the central gold reserve and $55,348,000 elsewhere, which includes holdings outside of Canada. This would make a total altogether, including the Dominion reserve, of $177,174,000.

SOVIETS AROUSED BY
SHORTAGE OF LABORCommunist Sounds Another
Alarm—Workers Refuse to Go to Provinces as OrderedBy JUNIUS E. WOOD
(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily
News Service.)

MOSCOW, Nov. 21.—Another alarm has been sounded by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union regarding the shortage of labor in coal mining, timber cutting and building construction. Because so many workers are refusing to go to the provinces as ordered, the Council of People's Commissars and the Council of Labor and Defense at a joint meeting have decided that the delinquents will be immediately discharged from their city jobs, not permitted to register at the labor exchanges for other work, forbidden employment and denied the privileges of the co-operative and organizations. They will lose their unemployment pay and also the statutory pay ordinarily allowed discharged persons.

It is now proposed to change the labor code permitting an employer to discharge any worker with two days' advance pay instead of the present two weeks. When twenty or more workers are discharged, the group will get ten days' pay, while engineers must receive six weeks' warning of discharge and give the same before quitting a job.

The Donets coal basin reports that 80,000 workers, which is 2,000 more than requested, reported for the recent drive, but that 35.7 per cent deserted, including 50 per cent farmhands and 30 per cent komsozols and 28 per cent collective farm members.

The lumber regions report that they have received only 28 per cent of the needed cutters and 21 per cent of the haulers, despite offers of sufficient tools, dwellings and food.

The Archangel district reports only 20 per cent of the needed timberjackers, the Ural 14 per cent, Siberia 5.6 per cent and Karelia 4.8 per cent. The drive to draft workers is being intensified.

The News Is Spread

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

You'll always find that common fright
Ends anger and desire to fight.
—Old Mother Nature.

News travels fast through the Green Forest and over the Green Meadows. It wasn't long before all the little people of the Smiling Pool, the Old Orchard and the Old Pasture, as well as the Green Forest and the Green Meadows, knew that Lightfoot the Deer was in dreadful trouble. First, the news of the great fight between Lightfoot and another Deer had spread. Then, Sammy Jay had discovered that the two fighters could not separate, but were locked together head to head by their antlers, the news traveled even faster. Everyone who could do so went over there to see it. Even Johnny Chuck started, then he decided that it was too far for his short legs.

But, of course, Peter Rabbit was there. Somehow, Peter had missed the fight; but he didn't mind this so much as long as he didn't miss the strange sight of the two Deer locked together. Lightfoot and the other Deer paid no attention to the little people looking on. They had no thought for anything but their own misery. Much of the time they spent down on their knees in fighting and struggling. It was a pitiful sight and there was pity in the eyes of all the onlookers. There seemed to be nothing that anyone could do. Even great, big Buster Bear was helpless in the matter. Strange to say he was a little bit afraid. This was also true of Yowler the Bobcat. There was something mysterious about this trouble, and his mystery usually awakens fear.

"It's dreadful!" said Peter Rabbit. "It's the most dreadful thing I've ever heard of! They'll both die! They'll both starve to death! They cannot eat and they cannot drink. Can't somebody do something?"

"Don't be silly, Peter!" said his cousin, Jumper the Hare. "Of course nobody can do anything. I guess it is one of those things that has to be. I'm sorry for Mrs. Lightfoot, too. See how sorrowful she looks. We certainly will miss Lightfoot. Without him the Green Forest will not be the same." "Just the same, something ought to be done about it," said Peter, and he went on to scratch a long ear with a long hind foot. When he failed to bring him an idea he scratched the other long ear with the other long hind foot. "Something's got to be done about it," he repeated. Then he brightened suddenly and nodded to his feet. "I've thought of something," said he.

"What?" demanded Jumper. "I've thought of someone who can help," replied Peter. "I just know he can help." Jumper looked at him doubtfully. "Who do you know who can possibly be of any help at a time like this?" he demanded.

"Farmer Brown's Boy," replied Peter. "If he were here I know he could do something. Yes, sir, I know he could do something."

"Well, he isn't here," said Jumper. "We've got to get him here." replied Peter. "Yes, sir, we've got to get him over here. If he once comes over here he'll do something; I know he will. I don't know why I didn't think of Farmer Brown's Boy before. Now let's sit down and think and think until we can find some way to get Farmer Brown's Boy over here."
